Edinburgh, Thursday, February 12, 1730.

From the Whitehall Evening Post, Feb. 5.

Paris, Feb. 11.

A Process is now actually before the Parliament, the Subject whereof is new and very extraordinary, viz. About 25 Years ago a married Man was hang'd at Layon in Picardy, and a Surgeon having obtained his Body of the Executioner, carried it home; and finding he was not dead, let him blood, and so took care of him that he recovered. After this he went to foreign Countries, where he gain'd considerable Effects, and remain'd there till hearing the Birth of the Dauphin, and the Pardon design'd upon that Occasion, he return'd to France, and put himself in Prison, according to the Regulation on this Subject, and obtain'd the King's Pardon. His Wife believing him dead, married some Years after to one who is also possess'd of considerable Effects, and by whom she has had several Children: Her first Husband has demanded her back, but she and her 2d Husband oppose it; which is the Ground of the Process.

Madrid, Jan. 18. The Court has receiv'd certain Advice, that Muley Abdallah, Emperor of Morocco, has resolved to renew the Siege of Ceuta.

Florence, Jan. 21. The Great Duke, who is in perfect Health, has held several Privy Councils of late, and sent back the Express so often mention'd to have arrived from France. Great Preparations are making in Spain by Sea and Land, to conduct Don Carlos to our Coasts with a numerous Attendance of Ships and Men.

Amsterdam, Feb. 10. By Letters from St. Andero we learn, that a Man of War of 80 Guns, 2 of 70, 2 of 60, 2 of 54, 2 of 16, and a Packet-boat, all-built at St. Andero, were sailed for Cadiz.

London, Febr. 5. Yesterday died Sir Archibald Grant, at his House in Conduit-street.

From the St. James's Evening Post, Febr. 5.

Constantinople, Decem. 12. The Divan assembles frequently, to consult about the Affairs of Persia, which very much perplex this Court, since they received the News of the Defeat of Sultan Afrefz Troops by Prince Thamas, who has already posses- sed himself of several important Posts, and waits only to be join'd by the Troops of the Great Mogul, to go and lay Siege to Ispahan, into which City Esref is retired.

Brunswick, Feb. 3. We learn from Cassel, that the Landgrave is so weak, that there is little or no Hopes of his Recovery.

London, Feb. 5. On Sunday last died of the Jaundice, William Phips, Esq; only Son of the late Sir Constantine Phips, who in the 1718 married Catharine, only Daughter of James late Earl of Anglesea (by Lady Catharine Darnley, Natural Daugh- ter to King James II. who afterwards married the late Duke of Buckingham) and Niece to the present Earl, By whom he has two Sons and a Daughter.

Yesterday died the Son of Sir Archibald Grant, at his House in Conduit street.

Letters from Brunswick of Feb. 2. say, That the Conferences at the Congress there are continuall with great Slowness.

Wye's Letter verbatim, London, Febr. 7.

Since our last arrived a Mail from Holland.

THIS great Cause that was to be heard Yester- day before the Lord Chief Justice Eyre, be- tween the Lord Abergavenny and Mr. Liddal, is de- ferred to the Sittings after Term. On Thursday Night last, died at his House near Ormond-street, the Rev. Dr. Marshal: He was one of the Preben- daries of Windsor, and Chaplain in Ordinary to his Majesty. The Sermon preached the 30th past, be- fore the Hon. House of Commons, by the Rev. Dr. Croxall, occasions much Discourse, particularly, whether it will be suffered to be printed.

We hear that little more than 240,000 l. will defray the Expence of the 12,000 Hessians taken into the Pay of Great Britain for the Service of this Year, and that 25,000 l. will answer the Subsidy to the Duke of Wolfenbuttel for this Year like- wise. And as the present Juncture of Affairs does so manifestly require the Continuance of these Troops, Troops, it is thought strange that any Objections should be raised against it.

The Emperor, according to Advices from Vienna by the Holland Mail, seems fixed in his Resolution to oppose the Introduction of Don Carlos; to which End his new Levies are carried on with the utmost Diligence; and Orders have been sent to the Hereditary Countries, to furnish forthwith the Troops design'd for Italy with what Provisions they shall want; and that one of his Ministers would shortly set out for divers Courts of Germany, to execute a Commission on the Part of his Imperial Majesty, relating to the Affairs of the present Juncture; And it is said General Wallis is to command the Emperor's Army in Italy; whither also Prince Eugene of Savoy will go this Year, in Quality of Vicar-general. And from Cassel we learn, that the Hessian Troops in the Pay of Great Britain, had Orders to be ready to march on the first Command. And from Hanover, that the Regency had ordered a great many Tents to be made; and that the war-like Preparations were continued with as much Diligence, as if they were on the Brink of a Rupture.

The Rev. Mr. Lee, Rector of St. James's Clackenwell, is appointed Chaplain to the Rt. Hon. the Lord Harrington. There was last Night at the Horn Tavern in Westminster, a Lodge of the free and accepted Masons, the Duke of Richmond presiding as Master of the said Lodge, when the Duke of Grafton was admitted and sworn a Member of that ancient and honourable Society.

The Prince and many of the Nobility went this Day to hunt about Epsom. 'Tis said his Royal Highness will go in the Summer to Scotland, and that the Palace of Holyrood-house will be fitted up for his Reception.

We hear that the Distillers are about to petition the Parliament for Relief in their present Case. The Lords Yesterday pass'd the Bill for inclosing the Common Fields of Cloughton in Lancashire, read a Petition of Charles Jennings Esq; praying Leave to dissolve his Marriage with Rachel Estwick his Wife; and Leave was given him accordingly.

By the Death of the Lady Craven, who died this Week, an Estate of 7000 l. per annum falls to the eldest Son of the L. Viscount Castlemaine.

The Duke of Norfolk, Grand Master, and the rest of the Society of Free Masons, have taken up the whole Pit and Boxes at the Theatre in Drury-Lane for next Thursday, when the Play of King Henry IV. (whose Son was a Free-Mason) is to be acted; and all the Members are to appear in white Gloves and white Leather Aprons.

Dr. de Castro, of the College of Physicians, was last Thursday admitted a Member of the Royal Society. The same Evening the Prince gave a great Entertainment to many Persons of Quality and Distinction, at the Theatre in Haymarket.

A Bill is daily expected from Ireland, against Rioters in that Kingdom.

From the Daily Post-Boy, Febr. 7.

SIR,

Mongst the many and just Complaints of our Merchants against the Spaniards, 'tis surprising no Body has informed the Publick of the Confiscation and Detention of British Effects by the French; a Loss, which if short of th'other in Value, exceeds it in some aggravating Circumstances, being an Injury done by a Friend, an Ally, in Violation of publick Faith, common Equity, and the Law of Nations, and of which no Redress is yet obtain'd.

It were endless to enumerate the Hardships of every individual Sufferer; I shall therefore confine myself to the most general Heads.

All British Subject who had any Money in France in the 1720, were compelled, under Forfeiture of their Money and personal Estates, to put their Money into the Bank, and to take Bills for it: which Bills, before the End of the same Year 1720, were annulled by publick Edict. A few of the Possessors of these Bills had afterwards a small Compensation by way of Annuity, amounting to scarce one Fifth of the Value; but most of them were deprived of all. This was a Calamity that fell indifferently on all British Subjects that had any Dealings in France, whether Purchasers in the Mississippi or not.

In the Years 1719 and 1720, many British Subjects became Purchasers of the Mississippi Stock, upon the Faith of Royal Edicts, by which the King engaged himself as Surety for the Actions of the said Company, as well to Foreigners as to his own Subjects.

In the Year 1721, when the Project of the said Company, in its full Extent, seem'd impracticable, the Whole was new-model'd, and the Actions were reduc'd by a general Visa, which annulled 7 tenths of the Action of every Proprietor: Which Visa, had it been impartially executed, must have been submitted to, as to a general Calamity; but so far from that, many of the French Nation had their whole whole Actions declar'd valid, and others more or less, according to their Degree of Favour. In order to make the Partiality quadrate with the Company's Affairs, they annulled the whole Actions of some Foreigners, especially of the British Subjects, without assigning any Reason, except what was owned by the Vistors, viz. That they were not Residors, or Inhabitants of the Kingdom.

The Subjects of most foreign States, who lay under this Proscription and Forfeiture of their Effects, have been redressed at the Instances of their Sovereigns; only the British Subjects, who have yet received no Redress, petitioned his Majesty in the most humble Manner, That he would be pleased to interpose his Power and Authority, to procure them some Reparation of their Losses. His Majesty was graciously pleased to give Orders to his Minister then residing at Paris, according to the Prayer of the said Petition; and his Ministers, in consequence of his Majesty's Order, did present to the Cardinal de Fleury the Memorial of the above mentioned Sufferers; but hitherto without any Effect, or Promise of Redress.

Every one who considers the above Particulars, will easily perceive that the Case of the Foreigners, Sufferers in the Mississippi and South Sea Companies, are vastly different; for in the latter, there was no Violation of public Faith, no Annihilation of any Effects; but on the contrary, a Reparation of Losses at the publick Expence.

N. B. All such as are Sufferers under the above mentioned Heads, are desired to prepare their Documents against the next General Meeting; where an Expedient will be proposed for their Redress, by a Clause in a Bill now depending in Parliament.

From the Evening Post, Feb. 7.

Stockholm, Jan. 22. 'Tis reported here, that the Senators have desired the King to use his good Offices with the Emperor, to determine him to engage King Augustus to prevent the bad Effects of th' Animosities of the Popish Lords of his Kingdom, who, far from being willing to restore to the Protestants what has been taken from them, seem resolved to hinder them from enjoying the Privileges still left them, and to deprive them of the free Exercise of their Religion.
